Tuesdays and Thursdays, 1:20–2:35 p.m. (synchronous)

Professor Paul Renfro

How did we get here? This course examines the history of the United States since 2000. It will familiarize students (most of whom were born around the year 2000) with the historical developments that have shaped their lives—the global “war on terror,” widening wealth and income inequality, the expansion of social media and automation, and intensifying battles over immigration and national and cultural identity.
