

The Native South: An Indigenous History of the American South

This class will introduce you to major themes in the Indigenous history of the American South from time immemorial to the present.

Topics will include sovereignty, colonialism, trade, diplomacy, war, removal, boarding schools, federal policy, activism, & more.

We will learn this history through the voices and perspectives of Native people, using documents, images, oral histories, maps, art, videos, & objects.

