

ASH 3930 The Rise of China

MWF 9:20AM - 10:10AM | Prof. Luo

This course explores China's rise (or return) to great power status by focusing on its dramatic transformation during the period between the nineteenth- and the twenty-first centuries. We will examine how the Chinese approached issues such as modernity, governance, territory, economy, education, culture, and international relations.

