

Senior Seminar
HIS4935-0004

Law and Society in East Asia

This course introduces students to the legal and social history of China, Japan, and Korea. We will explore the concept of law, its development and role in society. How did law shape kinship, gender, economy, politics, and in turn, influenced by these factors? What was the relationship between formal legal institutions, social norms, and customs? We will also compare East Asian and Western legal traditions.

Prof. Luo | Tu 9:00-11:45am

