

HIS 4935-0003
“Latinx History”

Tu 12:00PM-2:45PM, BEL0404

Alleged Members of the “Black Widow Girls’ Gang.” (1942) Photo-Jack A. Herod, Los Angeles Times

Deeply rooted in the US, Latinx (Hispanic / Latine /Latino/a) communities have long and complex histories often erased from national narratives. Rather than made up entirely of recent arrivals, some Latinx communities trace their history to the mid-nineteenth century. This seminar seeks to introduce students to historical research and writing skills essential to a better understanding of the immense variation of cultural, political, religious, and social practices among distinct Latinx communities.

Please email Prof Robinson A. Herrera (rherrera@fsu.edu) if you have any questions about the course.