"Latinx History"

Tu 12:00PM-2:45PM, BEL0404

"A group portrait of the Aztecas, a women's baseball team based in Pacoima, with their manager, 1936." Shades of L.A. Collection / Los Angeles Public Library Collection

Deeply rooted in the US, Latinx (Hispanic / Latine /Latino/a) communities have complex histories often erased from national narratives. Far from just recent migrants, some Latinx communities trace their history to the mid-nineteenth century. This seminar will introduce students to historical research and writing skills essential to a better understanding of the immense variation of cultural, political, religious, and social practices among distinct Latinx communities.

Please email Prof Robinson A. Herrera (rherrera@fsu.edu) if you have any questions about the seminar.
